OVER THE RIVER AND THROUGH THE WOODS

Over the river and through the woods, to Grandmother's house we go
The horse knows the way to carry the sleigh through white and drifted snow
Over the river and through the woods, oh, how the wind does blow
It stings the toes, and bites the nose, as over the ground we go
Interlude:

Over the river, and through the wood— oh, how the wind does blow!
It stings the toes and bites the nose as over the ground we go
Over the river, and through the wood— and straight through the barnyard gate,
We seem to go extremely slow, it is so hard to wait!
Verse 3 Over the river, and through the wood—
When Grandmother sees us come,
